Dear Parents of Holy Spirit School,

After interviewing candidates for the Principal position of Holy Spirit School and assessing their qualifications for the good of Holy Spirit School, the Principal Search Committee has prayerfully made a unanimous decision.

We are pleased to announce the Principal for Holy Spirit School beginning on July 1, 2017, will be Miss Amy Chessler. Miss Chessler, as you know, is our current Dean of Students and the fourth grade teacher of Holy Spirit School.

The Search Committee was unanimous in its consensus that Miss Chessler possesses the teaching ability and administrative skills to lead the teaching faculty, staff, parents and students of Holy Spirit School. We believe she cares deeply about our school.

You need to know that she will have my full support in the months ahead to lead our parish school. Holy Spirit School is needed in the Whitehall Community and Holy Spirit Parish.

The Search Committee extends their congratulations and support to Miss Chessler and hopes that you will also extend that support as a parent. Please keep Miss Chessler in your prayers for her success in this new position next year.

Sincerely,

Fr. William L. Arnold, Pastor
and
The Principal Search Committee

The Diocesan Art Show and Young Authors' Exhibit for grades K-8 will take place in the Holy Spirit School gymnasium from 12:30pm to 4:00pm on Saturday and Sunday. It's free! Please stop by to see the wonderful artwork and writing samples from many of our diocesan schools. Please enter through the gym doors when you arrive.

Our weekly Lenten thought: What we are called to do....

It is not easy to distinguish between doing what we are called to do and doing what we want to do. Our many wants can easily distract us from our true action. True action leads us to the fulfillment of our vocation. Whether we work in an office, travel the world, write books or make films, care for the poor, offer leadership, or fulfill unspectacular tasks, the question is not "What do I want?", but "What is my vocation?" The most prestigious position in society can be an expression of obedience to our call as well as sign of our refusal to hear that call, and the least prestigious position, too, can be a response to our vocation as well as a way to avoid it.....

When we are committed to do God's will and not our own we soon discover that much of what we do doesn't need to be done by us. What we are called to do are actions that bring us true joy and peace... Actions that lead to overwork, exhaustion, and burnout can't praise and glorify God. What God calls us to do we can do and do well. When we listen in silence to God's voice and speak with our friends in trust we will know what we are called to do and we will do it with a grateful heart. (Taken from Mornings with Henri J.M. Nouwen.)

God Bless!

Mrs. Linda Saelzler
